Affidavit to be Made by Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, [illegible], master [illegible] do solemnly and sincerely declare that I am master of said vessel, and that the persons named in the annexed list, now on board the said vessel, have been engaged by me in a foreign port or place, and not in the United States, to serve as seamen on board the said vessel from the port of [illegible] to the port of [illegible] in the United States, and that I intend to bring the said persons into the United States aforesaid, and land them at the port of [illegible] aforesaid, and that I require their services for the said vessel on her said voyage.

And I do further declare that the said persons, and each of them, have been regularly shipped as seamen on board the said vessel before the proper shipping commissioner, and that I have not, nor has any person for my use or benefit, or with my knowledge or consent, paid or agreed to pay, nor do I nor does any person for my use or benefit, or with my knowledge or consent, intend to pay or agree to pay, to any person or persons whomsoever, any sum of money or other valuable consideration whatsoever, as a compensation to or on account of any of the said persons for their services as seamen on board the said vessel, or in any way connected therewith, other than the wages which may become due to them as such seamen according to the laws of the United States, and that I will, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, truly answer all questions which may be put to me by the Immigrant Inspector at the port of [illegible] touching the said persons and their proposed landing in the United States.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of the Act of Parliament in that behalf made and passed in the thirty-seventh and thirty-eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the more effectual abolition of oaths and affirmations taken and made in various departments of the United Kingdom, and to make other provisions for the purposes of the said Act."

Sworn to before me this [illegible] day of [illegible] 190[illegible]

If any person in the above list is not a citizen of the United States, state in the proper column after his name whether he has a relative in the country from which he comes, and if so, what relative, and whether he has the price of his passage, and how much money he has with him, and whether he is going to any particular place, and if so, what place, and whether he has been in the United States before, and if so, when and where, and whether he has been in prison or almshouse or supported by charity, and whether a polygamist, and whether an anarchist, and whether coming by reason of any offer, solicitation, promise, or agreement, prepaid or otherwise, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, and what his condition of health, mental and physical, and any deformity he may have, and to what place he is ultimately destined. Each question must be answered in the proper column for every person, whether adult or child, and no person can be omitted from the list for any reason. Any master, agent, owner, or consignee of any vessel who refuses or neglects to report, or who reports falsely or incompletely in any particular concerning any passenger, shall be liable to a penalty of not more than $100 for each such passenger. Any person who knowingly makes a false statement in answer to any question herein shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to a fine of not more than $1,000 or to imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Rules governing the admission of aliens to the United States will be found on back of this sheet.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, [illegible], [illegible] of the SS "STATENDAM" of ROTTERDAM, [illegible] solemnly declare and truly declare that I have caused the passengers of [illegible] carried on board the vessel mentioned in the margin hereof, to make a diligent and careful examination of their persons and baggage, in order to ascertain whether any of them had in their possession any Obscene Books, Pictures or Printed Cards, and that I have not found in the possession of any of the said passengers any such Obscene Books, Pictures or Printed Cards.

And I further declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief no one of such persons has been or is now afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease, or is suffering from a bodily infirmity or a dangerous malady, and that I have not received information of any case of smallpox or of any other cases of misdemeanour (including mental weakness) on board, except as stated in the Surgeon's Declaration, or as otherwise specified in writing to the Immigration Officer at the Port of Landing, and that I have not received information of any case of illness on board during the voyage, except as stated in the Surgeon's Declaration, or as otherwise specified in writing to the Immigration Officer at the Port of Landing.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

Declared before me at the Port of [illegible] this [illegible] day of [illegible] 1903.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, [illegible], Master, of the [illegible] "STATENDAM" from ROTTERDAM, do solemnly declare that I have opened the Surgeon's sealed letter respecting the passengers embarked in the said vessel bearing the number of cards and letters corresponding to the numbers and letters on Surgeon's list.

I further declare that from the report of the Surgeon and from my own observation, I believe that no one of such passengers has been, during twelve months previous to embarkation, or is suffering from a loathsome or a dangerous contagious disease, and that I am not aware that any of such passengers have been concealed from the Surgeon.

And I further declare that I will not receive on board any passenger who may be rejected by the Surgeon as being afflicted with a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, and that I will not knowingly carry any such passenger, except such as may be specially permitted by the Surgeon to proceed to the United States, and that I will report the landing of all such passengers to the Inspector at the port of arrival.

And I further declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief the information in said List of Passengers is correct and true in every respect.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, [illegible] C. [illegible], the Master of the United S.S. Fontana (name of vessel) of Hamilton, Ontario, do solemnly and truly declare that I have made a personal examination of each and all of the passengers named on the foregoing List or Manifest of Steerage ——— in number, and that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel to make the Medical Inspection of the Surgeon employed by the owners thereof to make a physical examination of each of said passengers, and that from my personal inspection and the report of said Surgeon, I believe that no one of said passengers is an idiot, or insane person, or a pauper, or likely to become a public charge, or suffering from a loathsome or dangerous contagious disease, or a person who has been convicted of a felony or other infamous crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or under a contract or agreement, made previous to embarkation, to perform labor in the United States, except such as are expressly excepted under the law. And that to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said List or Manifest concerning each and every passenger named therein is correct and true.

Affidavit of the Master or Commanding Officer, or First or Second Officer.

I, O Cippers, master, * of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, from Bremen, do solemnly, sincerely, and truly swear that I have caused the surgeon of said vessel sailing therewith, or the surgeon employed by the owners thereof, to make a physical and oral examination of each and all of the aliens named in the foregoing Lists or Manifest Sheets, 31 in number, and that from the report of said surgeon and from my own investigation, I believe that no one of said aliens is an idiot, or insane person, or a pauper, or is likely to become a public charge, or is suffering from a loathsome or a dangerous contagious disease, or is a person who has been convicted of a felony or other crime or misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, or a polygamist, or an anarchist, or under promise or agreement, express or implied, to perform labor in the United States, or a prostitute, and that also, according to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in said Lists or Manifests concerning each of said aliens named therein is correct and true in every respect.

O Cippers.
Commanding Officer.

Sworn to before me this 17 day of Nov, 1903
